DAILY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL

C. C. Powning, Editor & Proprietor.

FRIDAY.....JULY 9. 1880.

FOR PRESIDENT,

JAMES A. GARFIELD,

Of Ohio.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

CHESTER A. ARTHUR,

Of New York.

Very favorable reports of crops in France are received.

The hay crop in Independence Valley will yield fully 1,200 tons this season, if it is all harvested.

Don Piatt on Garfield: "He holds today the honored position of being the only poor man among the political leaders."

J. S. Black says he is not the author of General Hancock's letters and orders concerning Louisiana. He knew nothing of them until they were printed.

All the acts of Garfield's busy life place him before the country as a man of broad views, enlightened statesmanship, and of earnest and consistent purposes.

Cardinal McCloskey writes to the New York Evening Post that the widely published congratulatory dispatch purporting to have been addressed by him to General Hancock is a forgery.

The unpopularity of English does not arise from his being a fool. He is too thrifty and tight in small matters. When he lets go of a dime the Goddess of Liberty knows she has been in his grasp."

The Storey Grand Jury yesterday found a true bill against Miles Finlen for assault with intent to kill. Bail was set at $1,000 and time of arraignment set for this morning. The bill against David Crosby was ignored.

The city and county of San Francisco has entered suit in the Superior Court against the Spring Valley Water Works to recover $245,200 alleged to be due for delinquent taxes up to January, 1878; also against William Sharon to recover $1,830, also for delinquent taxes.

Delegates to the North Carolina Republican Convention report that the prospects are good for the success of Garfield and Arthur in that State, with proper and needed encouragement from the North. The prominent Virginia politicians express the opinion that the differences between the Readjusters and Funders in the Democratic Party will cause the electoral vote of the State to be cast for Garfield and Arthur.

The Democratic press make no mention of the enthusiasm created in Wilmington, Del., by Hancock's nomination. Because there was no enthusiasm worth mentioning. The Wilmington Republican says there were "no fireworks, no red fire, no parade, no music by the band. The Democracy seemed utterly heartbroken and despondent." The Republicans should be able to carry Delaware.

Nevada, notwithstanding the forbidding aspect of its landscape, is capable of wonders in an agricultural way. The finest of strawberries are produced in Washoe county. The home demand is so great, however, that none of the berries ever find their way to Virginia. If the product could be sufficiently increased, the Washoe county grangers could find in Virginia a profitable market for their strawberries. We call the attention of the Reno JOURNAL to this matter, with the hope that it will stimulate the fruit-growers of its county to endeavor to increase their product so as to supply the Virginia market.—[Enterprise.

The interest you display is only equalled by the desire to receive that case of berries we promised to send you. Goes to-morrow, C. O. D.

You can't trust the Democratic party. They nominate men for the Presidency not upon any fixed ideas of governmental policy, but merely upon the ground of expediency. In 1864, they nominated McClellan, a Union General; in 1868 Seymour, the man who declared the "war a failure"; in 1872, Greeley, a life-long opponent of the Democratic party, and a peace candidate; in 1876 a Cipher; in 1880 another Union General, and that after soundly berating the Republican party for twice having nominated a "strong" military man. Verily, a party that is so vacillating in its policy—that has turned a dozen or more somersaults in as many years—is not fit to be trusted with the affairs of fifty or sixty millions of the best people on earth.

BANK MATTERS.

Elsewhere will be found cards from Mr. Beck and Mr. Schooling relative to Savings Bank affairs, the suspension and matters connected therewith, having been the town talk since it occurred. Several parties have attempted to create the impression that the JOURNAL has not performed its duty, because it has not denounced the Bank managers as thieves, robbers and scoundrels. The JOURNAL asks no favors of man living or dead; it fears no man living or dead. But the JOURNAL never flies off on a tangent; it never goes off half-cocked. Whenever the JOURNAL denounces anybody the public can rest assured that the charges will be proven in any Court of competent jurisdiction, and not alone that, but at the same time the denunciation will be for the public good and justifiable ends. We have no sympathy with live-sensational journalism of that character; we would rather say a good word for a man than a bad one. Especially do we entertain the opinion that the wholesale slander indulged in by the press against public men is calculated to make matters worse instead of better. We do not believe that men who have lived in a community twenty-five years, and who have always been honest and upright, and good citizens generally, should, if perchance they happen to make a mistake, be denounced in unmeasured terms, held up to public contempt and ridicule, hounded as though hanging was too good for them. No man is perfect, and there are times in every man's career when he may make a mis-step. The suspension of the Reno Savings Bank was a great calamity to this town, and our earnest hope is that every depositor will yet get his money. We believe that Jim Kinkead would sooner have died than had it occur, and that he would give Satan a mortgage on his life for thirty years, if he would pay the debts dollar for dollar today. He is to blame for not having been more cautious, for having "wilted" too quick, for not calling upon friends for advice, for not getting the Trustees together, for having allowed too much latitude to debtors like the editors of the two Reno papers, and for having made his uncle a preferred creditor, and yet in this latter case we should like to see the man who would have done differently under the circumstances. But that Kinkead has done anything dishonest, that he has robbed anybody, that he has made any false entries on the books, or that he desires to injure any creditor, we do not believe. For all of his life's labors in Washoe county he has nothing but his home, and that will have to be mortgaged to get bread for his wife and children.

Take Crockett's case: He is to blame for having had State money to his credit in that Bank, and for allowing it to accumulate to such an amount as $8,000. He should have had daily returns of his collections—for all that money was the result of collections, and never a dollar was put there or kept there for the purpose of "bolstering" the Bank, and when the dreadful news was communicated to him that the Bank was about to suspend, no wonder he rushed to Reno, took what money he could get, and securities enough to make good to the State the amount due the Treasury. The $1,500 of his own money in there he did not get, nor will he get it unless the Bank resumes, and yet he is called a thief, and some demand his resignation. His whole life was spent in this State, and his standing for honesty has been as good as Jerry Schooling's, and he is as honest a man as lives.

Mr. Beck, in his card, seems to take this paper to task, and says we said so and so. The words were not ours—they came and were reported as coming from the mouth of Mr. Kinkead on the night of the altercation between the two.

We think Mr. Beck was wrong in making the kind of a speech he did at the meeting. Liberty of speech does not carry the license to brand men for life, especially when the speaker is not able to prove what he says. We heard his speech, and we know that the words he put into Sheriff Walker's mouth were never uttered, because we were present when the Sheriff was questioned and he himself has said since the speech was made that he has been misrepresented. The Crocker estate matter will be shown to be an entirely different colored horse when the facts are made public. Mr. Beck allowed his feelings to carry him away. A man like he is ought to be doubly careful when making incendiary statements.

There were other men at that meeting who joined in the general harangue, men who had not paid their honest debts dollar for dollar, and some men who are very slow about paying any debts. And yet to have heard them talk one would have thought the Bank owed them a million dollars.

What ought to be done about this matter is this: The creditors and the Bank officers should work together, each party having opportunity to examine the books, each party acting with moderation, the assets taken and realized upon and every creditor get all of his money if possible. If the Bank Directors are individually liable they should pay; if the stockholders are held for the $70,000 worth of stock not paid for, they should pay it. But there is no sense in crimination and recrimination, and the lawyers and lawsuits eating up the Bank assets together with the creditors. We shall probably have more to say on this subject to-morrow. All facts, on both sides, will be published free of charge.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1, 1880.

The very next day after Garfield's nomination the Democratic mud slingers opened fire on him. All the old forgotten and unproved charges against him were put in type and circulated throughout the country. It is needless to say that they had all their trouble and expense for nothing. The charges fell flat, no one believed them, and their publication was stopped, and the more respectable Democratic papers that had been drawn into this mud fusilade apologized for it. The latest and most absurd attempt to injure

GENERAL GARFIELD

By Democrats, is to implicate him as being concerned in the trial and execution of Mrs. Surratt. The falsity of this is patent to all, and needs no explanation or further denial. The only Ohio man connected in any way with that Court was John A. Bingham, now Minister to Japan, who was Judge Advocate. General Garfield was associated with Judge Jere Black, of Pennsylvania, in the famous Milligan Indiana case, and made a powerful argument before the U. S. Supreme Court, wherein he denied the power of a military court to pass the death sentence upon a civilian. Of this argument and the principles contained therein, Republicans are proud. This campaign is to be one of reason and not of slander, and Democrats better act accordingly. The nomination of

HANCOCK

Will take up so much of the General's time in campaign matters that he has asked to be relieved from serving as President of the Warren Court of Inquiry. The President, desiring of course, to give him a fair chance, will grant his request.

The name of "Garfield" has been given to a new town in Colorado. Good for that town's head.

THE CENSUS

Enumerators have just completed their work in our sister city, Alexandria, and report an increase in population of 46 in the last ten years. Washington's increase is near 46,000. What a contrast. It is rumored that General Hancock's coming letter of acceptance, is to be an "elaborate and comprehensive State paper." This alarms the Star of this city. It advises him to commit no such foolish blunder, and points as a warning to him the fate of the illustrious gentleman after whom he was named who once ran for the Presidency, and seriously damaged his chances therefor by undertaking the double role of

SOLDIER AND STATESMAN.

The New York Tribune even goes out of its Republican way to give the following advice "The friends of Hancock should watch him closely lest he let slip an opinion. He has done nothing of the kind for fifteen years and is badly out of practice. Coming events cast their shadows before. The paper will be launched forth in all its comprehensiveness. But whether it will serve General Hancock the trick a like paper served General Scott remains to be seen: In Parkersburg, Va., they have it on their banner, "General W. S. Hancock, for President." Secretary Schurz will make an extended western tour this Summer. He will visit the Pacific Coast and many of the Indian reservations, also the Yellowstone National Park. He will be absent from the city about six weeks. There are five or six vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant in the army. A board of officers will convene shortly to examine applicants for the positions.

LOGAN.

WONDERFUL INDEED.—"What a country!" exclaims the Salt Lake Tribune, in contemplating all that has been accomplished in the United States within a year, and the increase of population that will be shown during the last decade by the census. A wonderful country, truly, as the Tribune rehearses its glories:

When we read that in the last eight weeks, from seven Eastern ports, more than 40,000,000 bushels of wheat and corn have been exported to supply the markets of Europe; that in the past month the National debt has been reduced by $10,214,424; that in the past year the mints of the country have coined $84,370,144; that 5,000,000 more acres are planted in wheat this year than last; that 10,000,000 fresh acres have this year been disturbed by the plough; that the area of cotton-planted land has been extended ten per cent; that 6,000 or 7,000 miles of new railroad is being built this year; that the mining and manufacturing interests were never so active as now; that the census will show that the population has, despite a wasting war, increased seventy-five per cent in twenty years; and as a thousand other such statistics come rolling in upon us, we begin to realize that our country is a wonderful one.

FLYING FIGURES.

The Daylight Pyrotechnics at Woodward's Gardens.

The Chronicle says over ten thousand spectators and holiday-makers assembled at Woodward's Gardens last Monday afternoon to witness the unusual spectacle of fire works in the day time. Previous to the daylight pyrotechnic display an immense crowd fairly packed the pavilion to witness the performance by the regular company. At the close the national anthem and the "Star-spangled Banner" were sung, the audience joining in the chorus. After the pavilion entertainment the mass of spectators congregated in the amphitheater, where the display of fireworks was to take place. At 4 o'clock the first bomb was lighted, and with an explosion equaling the loudest "double header," it rose in the air some two hundred feet and suddenly exploded, leaving a perfectly formed turtle gyrating in the air and causing an immense deal of amusement by its natural movements and brilliant colors. Others were exploded and various figures represented. The last piece, however, carried off the honors for novelty and size. The figure enclosed in the bomb was that of an old man about eight feet high, which floated in the air in the most natural manner, bobbing its head as in greeting to the laughing, upturned faces. The figures are made of tissue paper, brilliantly colored and so balanced by tiny pieces of bamboo and bits of lead that the instant they are freed from the bomb they are filled by the wind, which catches them, and floats them in the air. Small strings are attached to the head, arms and feet, which by the action of the air are made to move, and thus gives the figure the lifelike and grotesque movements. These daylight fireworks are the only ones ever exhibited in America, having reached this country from Japan about two years ago, being imported by a Government official. It is estimated that over two thousand strangers from the country visited the gardens Monday.

The associated Press is busy telegraphing extracts from the New York Sun. And the Democratic papers will howl about the help it is always giving the Republicans.

The Tuscarora Times-Review says: The two political clubs in town, viz.: the Hancock Guards and the Garfield Grand Army, are both increasing their rolls daily. The former now numbers 154 members, while the latter has 130 on its rolls. The permanent organization of the two clubs will, in all probability be effected this week.

Demurred.

The Savings Bank has filed a demurrer in each and every case of attachment. This carries the whole thing over until the September term of court, and ties up the matter. It is unfortunate that no way could be arranged by which the creditors and bank officers could not have the books, etc., so that some effort could have been made to realize upon the assets and both sides protected. If the whole matter continues in litigation, there will be a great deal less to divide among the parties interested.

Meat Market.

There is a plentiful supply of all kinds in San Francisco but prices keep steady, as trade is gradually improving. Following are rates for whole carcasses from slaughterers to dealers:

BEEF — Prime, 6@6½c; medium grades, 5c to 6c; inferior, 4c ℔ lb.

VEAL—Large Calves, 5@6c; small ones, 7½c to 9c ℔ lb.

MUTTON—Wethers are quotable at 3@3½c, and ewes at 3c ℔ lb.

LAMB—Quotable at 4@5c ℔ lb for good to choice.

PORK—Live Hogs, 5@5½c for hard, and 4½c to 4⅝c for soft; dressed do, 7@7¾c ℔ lb.

Republican State Convention.

The Republican State Central Committee, in session yesterday afternoon at Pioneer Hall, resolved to hold the State Convention at Carson City at 12 o'clock M. August 11th, for the purpose of nominating three Presidential Electors, one Congressman and a Justice of the Supreme Court, and electing a new State Central Committee. It was also decided that the primary election of delegates to the State Convention shall be held not later than August 7th.

Farm Hands Wanted.

There are not enough idle men in this section to supply the demand for farm hands. Several of our ranchers are anxious to get good help, and are willing to pay the usual wages. Mr. James Sullivan wants some good men right away.

Libel Suit.

Mr. Jas. H. Kinkead has sued the Gazette for libel, claiming damages at $15,000. The complaint was made last evening, and the papers will be served to-day.

A Chinese shanty, in Jack Fraser's garden, took fire yesterday afternoon. The alarm was promptly given and the fire promptly extinguished.

The county officers will have but little to do for the next two months—except to make themselves solid with the voters for reelecton.

The water has been turned on from the new reservoir, and the extra pressure caused the pipes on Commercial Row to burst.

Landlords will have to come down with their rents, or tenants will vacate sooner than expected.

Card from Mr. Beck.

ED JOURNAL:—In your issue of this morning I think you did an injustice to the firm of which I am a party, but believing you were misled I ask a small space to correct you, in behalf, more particularly, of Mr. Lake, who is certainly not to blame for my personal acts since the suspension of the bank.

The particular part of your article to which I call your attention being that which conveys the idea that the Lake Mills Co. was in some manner to blame for the faiture of the bank. How in the world such could be the case, I am entirely unable to say. Our concern banked our funds there and at times we were accommodated with over-drafts, while at others we had considerable money in bank. Like all banks we were charged interest on over-drafts, which was paid. On May 24th, being in want of more money to conduct our business, we called at the bank and inquired if we could be accommodated with more money. The Manager kindly informed us that the bank could not allow any further over-draft, but he could get us money on our note. This suggestion was accepted. Mr. Lake and myself executed our note, due in sixty days. The manager informed us that he had placed our note with the Nevada Bank. We heard nothing of it until after the suspension of the Savings Bank, when Mr. Bachelder informed us that the Nevada Bank had made inquiries as to whether the note was good, stating that he had answered to the effect that the note was gilt edged. This is why I insisted that Lake Mills did not owe the Savings Bank.

But supposing we did owe the suspended bank. Is that evidence of injury? I am quite confident that when it is due it will be paid, whether held by the Reno bank or any one else. I cannot see the point in your statement that the "Mill Co. owes the bank," because it was part of the business of the bank to have people owe it. In fact it appears a great many owe it, and if all are as able—pardon the egotism—as we are and as willing, I feel sure that the bank will pay dollar for dollar.

You will pardon me for saying that it is currently reported that you owe the bank, but is that any evidence that you [illegible]

Having said this much for the Mill company I beg a few more lines on personal account: The statement that I owe the bank $384 may be entirely correct, although my impression is that it is less; but no matter about that, whatever it is my checks will show, and just as soon as the bank is in shape to do business and will deliver to me my stocks which it holds, and which, as per the quotations to-day are worth something like five hundred dollars, the account will be settled. In fact it would have been settled long ago, had the management ever suggested it.

Should this not prove to be entirely correct you may wear a suit of clothes at my expense. H. H. BECK.

RENO, July 8, 1880.

The Lodge Matter.

If all the items published by the Gazette about the Savings Bank have been as incorrect as the one last evening relative to the affairs of Truckee Lodge, No. 14, I. O. O. F., then the Gazette is greatly to blame. The Lodge has no particular interest in having its private affairs published at all, but we take the liberty of stating, especially as the building has been under the personal supervision of the writer ever since its construction, that the Lodge does not stand to lose one cent, because instead of $8,000, of unpaid bonds, as stated, there are only $2,150 in bonds that have not been taken up by the Bank as agreed; the Bank surrendered $17,300 in bonds and $6,708 on account of liens paid. The assertion that at the meeting Wednesday evening the Lodge remained in session until 11 o'clock discussing the matter, is on a par with the balance. The subject was never mentioned that evening, and the lodge acted on an entirely different matter.

The Lassen Road.

Mr. Wm. Dodson, Supt. of the road now being constructed through the Lassen Pass, whereby the whole northern country will have uninterrupted communication with Reno, the year round, is in town raising money to prosecute the work. He has visited several of our business men, who have given him substantial aid, but he needs more help and will remain over to-day to solicit still further. Among the subscribers already in, we note Manning & Berry, $100; L. J. Flint, $25; Hymers & Comstock, $25; Jerry Schooling, $25; J. L. McFarlin, $25. We have frequently pointed out the advantage this road would be to Reno and need only tell our people of Mr. Dodson's presence to ensure him the needed help from us.

Judge Young has already registered several voters. Voting will soon commence.

Osburn & Shoemaker's soda is a very smooth drink.

Mr. Schooling Speaks.

EDITOR JOURNAL: The proposition made by Mr. Kinkead concerning the assignment of the assets of the Reno Savings Bank to a committee of creditors, was as follows: To turn over to a committee of the attaching creditors all assets of the bank; to first pay the attachment liens, and if any surplus remained to pay the same to the creditors pro rata. It was distinctly stated by Mr. Kinkead that he did not ask that the attachments should be released, but remain in full force as preferred claims.

JERRY SCHOOLING.

The above card shows how unfair the Gazette was last evening when it published the following in answer to what the JOURNAL said yesterday morning:

The offer was to turn over the assets to the attaching creditors. Mr. Schooling says that he paid no attention to it, because the bank could not turn over the assets to the attaching creditors without their releasing their attachments, which he and others did not propose to do.

When the Gazette man went to Mr. Schooling for information, he was told just what was contained in the card, and admonished to be sure to have it right "as you newspaper fellows are always making mistakes."

The Bank owes Sunderland $400, but he didn't give another sufferer much sympathy the other day, for he was one of those fellows who always have money in a Bank when it fails, but who never have money to pay their debts, This fellow said he was $500 loser. "Well," says John, "that is the reason you have not paid me that $40, you have owed for a year and a half."

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

THE FOLLOWING IS THE PLATFORM of the National Republican Party adopted by the Chicago Convention:

Republican rule has restored upon a solid basis payment in coin for all the national obligations, and has given us a currency absolutely good and legal, and equal in every part of our extended country. It has lifted the credit of the nation from the point where six per cent. bonds sold at 86, to that where four per cent. bonds are eagerly sought at a premium Under its administration railways have increased from 31,000 miles in 1860 to more than 93,000 miles in 1879 Our foreign trade has increased from $700,000,000 to $1,150,000,000 in the same time, and our exports, which were $20,000,000 less than our imports in 1879. Without resorting to loans, it has, since the war closed, defrayed the ordinary expenses of Government, besides the accruing interest on the public debt, and disbursed annually more than $40,000,000 for soldiers' pension. It has paid $880,000,000 of the public debt, and by refunding the balance at lower rates has reduced the annual interest charge from nearly $151,000,000 to less than $89,000,000. All the industries of the country have revived; labor is in demand; wages have increased, and throughout the entire country there is evidence of a coming prosperity greater than we have ever enjoyed Upon this record the Republican party asks for the continued confidence and support of the people, and this Convention submits for their approval the following statements of the principle and purpose which will continue to guide and inspire its efforts:

THE REPUBLICAN POLICY.

First—We affirm that the work of the last twenty one years has been such as to commend itself to the favor of the nation and that the fruits of the costly victories which we have achieved through immense difficulties should be preserved. That the peace regained should be cherished That the dissevered Union, now happily restored, should be perpetuated, and that the liberties secured to this generation should be transmitted undiminished to future generations. That the order established and the credit acquired should never be impaired. That the pensions promised should be paid. That the debt so much reduced should be extinguished by the full payment of every dollar thereof That the reviving industries should be further promoted, and that the commerce already so great should be steadily encouraged.

A NATION, NOT A CONFEDERACY.

Second—The Constitution of the United States is the supreme law, and not a mere contract. Out of the confederated States it made a sovereign nation. Some powers are denied to the nation, while others are retained by the States; but the boundary between the powers delegated and those reserved is to be determined by National and not by state tribunals.

POPULAR EDUCATION.

Third—The work of popular education is one left to the care of the several States but it is the duty of the National Government to aid that work to the extent of its constitutional ability. The intelligence of the nation is but the aggregate of the intelligence in the several States, and the destiny of the nation must be guided, not by the genius of any one state, but by the average genius of all.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Fourth—The Constitution wisely forbids Congress to make any law respecting an establishment of religion but it is due to hope that the nation can be protected against the influence of sectarianism, while each State is exposed to its particular domination. We therefore recommend that the Constitution be so amended as to lay some prohibitions upon the legislature of each State, and to forbid the appropriation of the public funds to the support of sectarian schools.

DUTIES OF THE DAY

Fifth—We reaffirm the belief avowed in 1876, that the duties levied for the purpose of revenues should so discriminate as to favor American labor. That no further grant of the public domain should be made to any railroad or other corporation. That slavery having perished in the States, its twin barbarity, polygamy, must die in the Territories. That everywhere the protection accorded to a citizen of American birth must be secured to citizens by American adoption That it is the duty of Congress to develop and improve our watercourses and harbors, but we insist that further subsidies to private persons or corporations must cease That the obligations to the men who preserved its integrity in the day of battle are undiminished by the lapse of fifteen years since their final victory Their perpetual honor is and shall forever be the grateful privilege and the sacred duty of the American people

THE CHINESE PLANK.

Sixth—Since the authority to regulate immigration and intercourse between the United States and foreign nations rests with the Congress of the United States and its treaty making powers, that the Republican party, regarding the unrestricted immigration of Chinese as an evil of great magnitude, invokes the exercise of the power to restrain and limit that immigration by the enactment of such just, humane and reasonable provisions as will produce that result.

COMMENDATION OF HAYES.

Seventh—That the purity and patriotism which characterized the earlier career of Rutherford B Hayes in peace and war and which guided the thought of his immediate predecessor to him for a Presidential candidate, have continued to inspire him in his career as chief Executive, and that history will accord to his administration the honors which are due to an efficient, just and courageous fulfillment of the public business, and will honor his interposition between the people and proposed partisan laws.

ARRAIGNMENT OF THE DEMOCRACY.

Eighth—We charge upon the Democratic party the habitual sacrifice of patriotism and justice to a supreme and unsatisfiable lust for office and patronage, that to obtain possession of the National and State governments, and the control of place and position, they have obstructed all the efforts to preserve the purity and conserve the freedom of suffrage; have defrauded fraudulent certificates and returns; have labored to unseat lawfully elected members of Congress, to secure at all hazards the vote of the majority of the States in the House of Representatives; have endeavored to occupy by force and fraud places of trust given to others by the people of Maine, and rescued by the courage and action of Maine's patriotic sons; have by methods, vicious in principle and tyrannical in practice, attached partisan legislation to appropriation bills; have crushed the rights of individuals, and vindicated the principles and sought the favor of rebellion against the nation; and have endeavored to obliterate the sacred memories of the war, and to overcome its inestimable good results—freedom and individual equality. We affirm it to be the duty and purpose of the Republican party to use all the legitimate means of this Union to secure the perfect harmony which may be practicable, and we submit to the practical, sensible people of the United States to say whether it would not be dangerous to the best interest of our country at this time to surrender the administration of the National Government to a party which seeks to overthrow the existing policy under which we are so prosperous, and thus bring distrust and confusion where there is now order, confidence and hope.

Ninth—The equal, and steady, and complete enforcement of the laws, and the protection of all our citizens in the enjoyment of all privileges and immunity guaranteed by the Constitution, are the first duties of the nation.

Tenth—The dangers of a "solid South" can only be averted by a faithful performance of every promise which the nation has made to the citizen. The execution of the laws, and the punishment of all those who violate them, are the only safe methods by which an enduring peace can be secured and genuine prosperity established throughout the South. Whatever promises the nation makes the nation must perform. A nation cannot with safety relegate this duty to the States. The "Solid South" must be divided by the peaceful agencies of the ballot, and all honest opinions must there find free expression. To this end the honest voter must be protected against terrorism, violence or fraud.

Eleventh—And we affirm it to be the duty and the purpose of the Republican party to use all legitimate means to restore all the States of this Union to the most perfect harmony which may be possible, and we submit to the practical, sensible people of these United States to say whether it would not be dangerous to the dearest interests of our country at this time to surrender the administration of the national Government to a party which seeks to overthrow the existing policy under which we are so prosperous, and thus bring distrust and confusion where there is now order, confidence and hope.

Twelfth—The Republican party adhering to the principles affirmed by its last National Convention of respect for the constitutional rules governing appointments to office, adopts the declaration of President Hayes that the reform of the civil service should be thorough, radical and complete. To this end it demands the co-operation of the legislative with the executive departments of the Government, and that Congress shall so legislate that fitness, ascertained by proper practical tests, shall admit to the public service.
